THE NATION

WE ALL ENTER BRAINTREE HIGH NOT KNOWING OUR FUTURE OR WHAT WE'LL BE A PART OF. BUT AS WE GO THROUGH HIGH SCHOOL, WE JOIN CLUBS, SPORT TEAMS AND BECOME INVOLVED IN ALL SORTS OF OTHER ACTIVITIES. WE HAVE GROUPS OF FRIENDS WHO WE TALK TO EVERYDAY AND SIT WITH AT LUNCH. AND WHILE MANY THINGS ARE DIFFERENT ABOUT US, WE ALL COME FROM THE SAME PLACE AND HAVE THE SAME PRIDE. WE CHEER ON OUR SPORTS TEAMS, APPLAUD THE PERFORMERS AND WHEN THE TIME COMES, WE DRESS IN OUR BRAINTREE BLUE AND WHITE AND EXPRESS OUR PRIDE. WE SHOW EVERYONE HOW MUCH WE CARE AND THAT WE ARE ONE, WE ARE THE NATION.

PEOPLE

THE NATION IS MADE UP OF PEOPLE,
BUT NOT JUST ANY PEOPLE,
THE STUDENTS OF BRAINTREE HIGH.

OUR LAST FIRST

DAY AT BHS

STAFF CHAT

Ms. Roffo

What's one piece of advice you have for the class of 2014?

I'd say, trovel. Experience o new culture, o new language, and o new way of living. The world is pretty big outside of this Bointree bubble! Also, thank yaur parents. You moy not get along with them now, but thot will poss. Thonk them for allowing yau ta get an education, far giving yau a cell phane, moybe even o cor to drive!

What's the most memorable vacation?

When I was studying abraad in Spain, my friends and I took mini-vacations ta countries around us. We visited France, Italy, Portugal and Morocco. They were all interesting in their awn woy, but Morocco was the most different. I gat ta hald snokes, get henna-tattaas an my hands, and ride comels...I was definitely aut af my comfort zone!

What is your favorite BHS tradition?

I lave Spirit Week! I think it's esepciolly funny when freshmen stort out wearing a simple red t-shirt an Calar Wars Day, ond by senior year, they're in a full banono outfit. I'm alsa a big fan of Senior Citizen's Doy and watching everyone get ta class ten minutes lote because they "fell ond couldn't get up" or were "busy watching the grondkids ot their soccer game."

Mr. Lee

What's one piece of advice you have for the class of 2014?

Understand that each doy offers new appartunity. Neither success nor foilure is ever fully determined, os you hove the ability ta change everything eoch morning you wake up. Live the life you wish ta live with that in mind.

What's the most memorable vacation?

Hmmm...I would say Europe. I went far aver a manth with just o backpack and a Eurail (might be spelled wrang) pass, ond we jumped trains through 7-8 countries, staying in small hatels ar hostels. Met same amazing people ond sow wonderful sights everyploce we stapped.

What is your favorite BHS tradition?

Think it's taugh to tap Spirit Week. The sheer number of students who participote make it speciol. Watching all the classes come up with interesting ideos that have included Viking hardes and entire Indion notians hos been exceptionol to watch.

Ms. Mills

What's one piece of advice you have for the class of 2014?

My odvice is ta keep on open mind ond fallow your heort. Always wear warm dry sacks..again its all about the comfort!

What's the most memorable vacation?

The mast interesting vacotion was to Arubo. It storted out with o delayed flight, pocked in ta the plane thot was so crowded, I was miserable. We finally orrived at the hotel and they did nat have o record af aur reservotions. Paor me, I had ta stoy in the $5000 o night Presidentiol Suite. Love Aruba!

What is your favorite BHS tradition?

My favorite BHS trodition is jeons on Fridays..ond Spirit Week, esepciolly twin day where we wear pojomos. It's oll about the comfort!!!

Mr. Marx

What's one piece of advice you have for the class of 2014?

Dan't be afroid ta embarrass yourself, it's the only woy you'll ever take risks, grow, ar end up where yau're supposed ta be.

What's the most memorable vacation?

When I was living in Singapare for wark, I was lucky enough ta get ta travel all aver Southeast Asio. My best friend fram college come over ta visit, ond we went ta the beaches of Thailand, the sanctuories of Bali, and the delicious restauronts of Combodia (kind af like an Eat, Pray, Lave thing).

It was omozing ta be able ta see so many different cultures, leorn sa much about the world, ond get on owesome tan.

What is your favorite BHS tradition?

This is a strange onswer, but my favorite BHS tradition is the Freshmon Saphomore donce. All af the students get so excited, but it's not os high stress as Juniar ar Senior pram. It's so fun ta see kids innacently hove fun ond enjoy their first taste of high school excitement.

Mr. Tibbetts

What's one piece of advice you have for the class of 2014?

- a. Treat others as you would like to be treated. You want to make the world a better place? Start here.
- b. Fail. Failure is the best experience for growth. It means you took a risk. After failing, reflect to understand what you could have done differently. This is the basis for all sorts of scientific advancements as well as musical and artistic creativity. The exception here is in personal behavior. You get to mess up in that category once.

 Good. I mean books, people. For pleasure. It's the only medium where you get to create the images in your head. Besides, the most successful people are readers (look up the studies on habits of successful people.)
 Meditate. Especially in this digital world you need to give your brain a rest. It takes patience and practice but you will unlock all sorts of possibilities you would not otherwise encounter. Search YouTube for Russel Bronds talk at the David Lynch foundation for starters.

What's the most memorable vacation?

Bali, Indonesia

The Balinese are a Hindu culture in a Muslim country. Creativity is central to their history and culture and as one travels around the island they will encounter one area that makes textiles... another that is the heart of painting...another where generations have been wood carving.
 The Balinese people are the nicest and friendliest people I have ever met in my travels and the food is awesome. My favorite is gado-gado, vegetables with spicy peanut sauce on rice.

What is your favorite BHS tradition?

My favorite tradition at BHS is the annual seniors lost day. It's very cool to see the students put time and creativity into decorating their vehicles and themselves and then when they come into school on-moss all rousous and whatnot, that's a great way to mark their lost day at BHS.

PRIDE

Ms. Yang

What's one piece of advice you have for the class of 2014?

Never stop believing in yourself and go WAMPS!

What's the most memorable vacation?

A one week get away to Florida with a cruise to the Bahamas, and I stayed at this beautiful resort with awesome views to the crystal blue ocean and white sand beach.

What is your favorite BHS tradition?

Definitely the SPIRIT WEEK!

Mr. Flanagan

What's one piece of advice you have for the class of 2014?

Only one? Sorry. Can't do that. First, make sure you have a good handshake. Be proud of who you are and show people respect, all at the same time. Second, get out and travel. See the USA and see the world. Third, whatever you do in life, find something you enjoy doing, regardless of the money. Like those "Life is Good" guys. Do what you like and like what you do. Fourth, make sure you don't have any food in your teeth when talking to people. It makes people uncomfortable. Fifth, stop where you are and put your hand over your heart when you hear The Star Spangled Banner or the Pledge of Allegiance. I could go on, but finally, and simply, it all comes down to how you treat other people. Respect the two way street. And it often starts with a handshake!

Addendum: The class of 2014 is truly special. I've had only about 100 of these students in class, but I know that the integrity of these students is certainly representative of the entire class. It has been a pleasure and honor to know this class of Womps.

What's the most memorable vacation?

Without a doubt it would be the five week trip to Europe I took after I graduated from college in 1992. A friend and I backpacked all around the continent, starting in London. We then travelled to Ireland, the Netherlands, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Switzerland, France, Italy and Greece. Being exposed to so many different peoples and cultures was a most invaluable life experience. It is something I recommend to all my students.

What is your favorite BHS tradition?

I love Spirit Week. Especially the color wars and the pep rally. I also enjoy the amount and intensity of the 1-2-3 Womps chants I get to do with my classes. And of course, we like to blast stadium music in my classroom between periods on my colossal and deafening sound system.

CLASS ADVISORS

SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS
Mr. Marx and Ms. Rodd

Dear Class of 2014,

As author Lynn Hall contemplated her thirtieth high school reunion, she realized that "we did not change as we grew older; we just became more clearly ourselves." As you look back on your high school experience, remember that the excited girl who danced the night away at the freshman dance is not gone. Neither is the optimistic sophomore boy who signed up for the level one class, looking for an academic challenge and believing that learning was more important than grades. The junior who somehow convinced three of her friends to dress as ballerinas for multiplicity day, and the senior who screamed himself hoarse at the basketball game, dressed in cut-off shirts and a flannel shirt, doing anything for Wamp Nation—these people have not disappeared in the stress of college applications, joining the workforce, or pledging service to the armed forces.

The next phase of your life may keep you close to home or take you around the world, draw on all the skills you learned in high school or push you in an entirely new direction, allow you to remain in constant contact with your high school friends or require you to build new friendships. Regardless, you have not changed from that ambitious, optimistic, innocent freshman—you've just become more of yourself.

We're so lucky that we get to watch you develop and grow; please come back to visit!

Always,

Team Raxx

BHS HEROS

Knowingly or not, our teachers had an impact on us during the last four year. They challenged us with daunting presentations, lengthy assignments and tedious projects - pushing us to our fullest potential. At times, they were labeled as the bad guys, out to ruin our days and drown us in stress, but we were naive. We were the students and they were the teachers and that's just how it works. Today, these people are our friends, our mentors, our heroes. Their words are imprinted into our minds and their values influence our actions. Yes, they taught us the core subjects: languages, formulas, literature, art and history, but more importantly, they built us into strong, intelligent and kind individuals, ready to take on the rest of our lives.

2014 YEARBOOK STAFF

REDA LIMANTAS, THOMAS FALCUCCI, MARIA QURESHI, EMMA CROSS, VERNON HARRISON, MEGHAN LEAHY, JULIA PUSATERI, SOPHIA BERARDINELLI, EMILY CLEGGETT, KERRI MITCHELL, KATIE DOUGHERTY, SARAH MURPHY, KIM LE, AND BRIANNA MCDONOUGH.

The time has finally come, and this chapter is ending. The four years in Braintree High School we've had together will be over. We've made it through all the classes and the fun things too, but it's time to go off into the world and there is no turning back. Still at Braintree High School we will always be the class of 2014, this was our year.

This book will serve to remind us of the people and events of BHS, and the memories we made here. We will be able to look back at these moments within the next year or fifty years from now when we show our grandchildren. I hope you can look back and still remember the spirit and pride Braintree has taught us because this was our home for four years and a once in a lifetime experience for every single one of us. Don't forget the people you met and places you went, always remember the good times at Braintree high, and don't forget we'll always be Wamps.

Gaah Luck,
Reda Limantas
2014 Editor in Chief

COLOPHON:

Volume 72 of the Wampatuck was published in a limited edition of 325 copies with 184 full-color pages. An additional 16-page black and white spring supplement covered activities and events that occurred after the February deadline and is delivered in the fall. The books were printed by Jastens Printing and Publishing, PO Box 297, 401 State Park Road College, PA 16804-0297. Tara Anderson was the Jastens yearbook representative. Christina Hedges was the Jastens Plant Representative.

The cost of the edition was approximately $111.00 per yearbook to publish. Individual copies were sold for $80.00 if purchased by the October deadline. All other yearbooks were sold for $90.00.

The cover was designed by BHS Wampatuck Yearbook Staff. The pages were produced using a four-color litho process. Finished pages were submitted to the publisher with Netline. Page layout was done using Adobe InDesign CS6 on Dell Computers and HP laser jet printers. Copy was written by AYT Gratesk and AYT Tremela.

Senior portraits and photographs were handled by Prestige by Lifetouch Studios. Contributing photography studios for senior portraits included: Peter Silawan Photography, Sally Bawen, and Dino Rota Studios. Lifetouch photographer John Peresado "All-Stor!" provided candid photos for sports and activities. Photographs were also provided by the yearbook staff and Mr. Joe Cady. Mrs. Marsha Raas was the business advisor and Mrs. Heidi Hurley was the creative and staff advisor. The 2014 Yearbook Staff would like to give thanks to all the faculty and staff for your help and assistance in producing this year's 72nd volume. We apologize for any miss-spelling or miss-identifications, none were done intentionally.
